This month's topic:

iPAD: BASICS AND BEYOND

Never trust a computer you can't throw out a window. — Steve Wozniak

Like all of its sibling iOS devices, the iPad is a true blue, bona fide computer. But with its diminutive size and all its impressive capabilities, even the user-friendly iPad can sometimes be challenging to use. On Tuesday, Roger will take the iPad from standstill to full speed ahead, demonstrating how to handle various tasks, from basic to not-so-basic, and revealing some built-in goodies with which you may not be familiar. And after you have spent a little time learning some key features, though your iPad is indeed small enough to be tossed out a window, you may feel less inclined to actually do so.

Also,

BACK TO MAC BASICS

In this segment, we focus on more fundamental skills, to make life a little easier for those who are trying to learn how to use their Macs. This month:

A QUICK LOOK AT QUICK LOOK
to be presented by Rob Ellis

Last September, Rob showed how to use a built-in Mac goodie called Quick Look to create easy slide shows. On Tuesday, we will take a look at the rest of Quick Look's capabilities, including how to preview nearly every document on your Mac.
