7:00 PM — Presentations begin

Plus a FREE RAFFLE! (Details below)

This month's topic:

SHAREWARE GOODIES

Some of our favorite FREE applications for the Mac to be presented by Rob Ellis

In the midst of enduring yet another chilly Ohio winter, a little sweet indulgence can be wonderful therapy, and you deserve it. At Tuesday's meeting, we will sample lots of free goodies for your Macintosh, in many delicious varieties and in many delectable flavors. Rob will be serving up apps with some tantalizing features you are certain to enjoy, such as temporarily drawing on your screen to draw attention to something; extracting and downloading audio files from YouTube and Facebook videos; displaying detailed information about your Mac; creating thumbnailed, preview, screen captures from videos; reading QR codes on your Mac; utilizing a clever, transparent overlay to measure whatever is on your screen; and more. Please pardon our immodesty, but our menu is impressive. If you have been craving some tasty free apps, longing for your just desserts, Tuesday's meeting is the place to be.

Also,

BACK TO BASICS

In this segment, we focus on more fundamental skills, to make life a little easier for those who are trying to learn how to use their Macs and iOS devices. This month:

APPLE WATCH SOS

to be presented by Al Risaliti

People adore misusing the word "lifesaver", as in, "I needed something quick and easy for the bake sale, so that chocolate brownie mix was a lifesaver!" But if you own an Apple Watch, that stylish device on your wrist could turn out to be a literal lifesaver. On Tuesday, Al will explain and demonstrate the emergency and electrocardiogram features of the Apple Watch.

Also,

FREE RAFFLE!

Speaking of indulgence, our raffle item pairs perfectly with your favorite wine. We will be raffling what is possibly the most elegant corkscrew you ever seen. The corkscrew itself is made of brushed stainless steel, and the black presentation box has a magnetic closure and sports a silver, brushed-metal plaque bearing the Apple logo in black. The set is truly a class act.

This raffle is FREE to everyone attending the meeting.

About the weather:

In these winter months, if the weather is particularly bad or road conditions are unsafe on the day of one of our monthly meetings, please try to check your email before you leave for the meeting. If a meeting is ever cancelled or postponed due to weather, we will send an emergency email to let you know.
