This month's topic:

VIRTUAL TRAVEL ON YOUR MAC

See the world, or decide where in the world you would like to vacation, via some clever software and websites to be presented by Rob Ellis

If you have been longing to peruse the markets in Nassau or stroll along the Seine in Paris, though your Mac is not able to literally take you there (that requires planes and such), it can easily allow you to virtually wander the world. Whether you would like to visit Tokyo but find the actual trip cost-prohibitive, or would like to have a better look at it before you travel to decide whether it is your cup of tea, your Macintosh can be an invaluable assistant. On Tuesday, Rob will show several dazzling websites and some ingenious Mac software which allow you to experience the sights, and occasionally even the sounds, of faraway destinations, from San Francisco to Saturn. Yes, even stars and galaxies can be virtually traveled. While your Mac cannot serve up a feast of Fettuccine Bolognese from Italy (one hopes that Apple is working on it), it can certainly provide a feast for the eyes.

Also,

BACK TO MAC BASICS

In this segment, we focus on more fundamental skills, to make life a little easier for those who are trying to learn how to use their Macs. This month:

ALL ABOUT FINDER PREFERENCES to be presented by Rob Ellis

Finder Preferences are simple settings that can ease your use of your Mac and eliminate some annoyances. However, not all those preferences are intuitive. On Tuesday, we will explain all of them.

About the weather:
